1. 220 Fla Jur Decedents’ Property § 257

Client/matter: -None-
§ 257 Prohibition

Where a probate judge has jurisdiction over a proceeding to revoke the probate of a will and over the parties thereto and the jurisdiction of the court has been properly invoked, and it has jurisdiction to proceed, neither the mere fear of error nor the reasonable certainty thereof in the exercise of such jurisdiction impairs it so as to warrant the use of a writ of prohibition to prevent the probate judge from proceeding further.\textsuperscript{n1}
