s 24:14. Clauses in distribution contracts—Defining gross box office receipts

The phrase "gross box office receipts" shall mean the total sum (less any government tax on admissions) paid for admissions to each and every exhibition at an exhibitor's theater during each day when any production provided for on this agreement is (or by the terms of any contract with such an exhibitor was to have been) exhibited in such theater.

Notes

Commentary

[FNa5] St. Paul, Minnesota, Member of the Minnesota Bar.

Updated by the Publisher's Editorial Staff.